

Home ■ About Huber ■ Company Profile: Hydroflux

Company Profile: Hydroflux

WATER | SCIENCE | TECHNOLOGY

Hydroflux is an Australian company that provides wastewater process technology and solutions, to the industrial, municipal and commercial markets. Hydroflux is the exclusive Australian agent for HUBER Technology, a global leading technology leader in the field of wastewater, sludge treatment and process engineering.

As the exclusive agent for HUBER Technology, and with a 15 year familiarity with their product range, Hydroflux offer high quality products with the highest level of expertise in the applications of fine screening, grit removal, sludge treatment, aeration and packaged wastewater plants.

There are over 200 local Australian installations of HUBER equipment.

The team at Hydroflux have over 20 years experience in the design, engineering, installation, commissioning and servicing of wastewater treatment plants & equipment, for both physical/chemical and biological processes for the Australian market and overseas.

BUSINESS DESCRIPTION:

Industrial/municipal water and waste treatment plant supplier along with a wide range of stainless steel finished products.

Huber Technology offers a full range of superior equipment for achieving: Inlet Screening (Fine & Course), Screenings Removal, Washing, Conveying and Compacting; Sludge Screening, Belt, Drum Thickening and Dewatering, Storm Screening, Total Preliminary Treatment; Grit Removal and Washing, Grease and Solids Removal, Tertiary Treatment, Membrane Filtration, DAF Plants and Flow Control.

Plus:

A range of stainless steel products including safety personnel access covers, safety ladders and fall arresters, and security doors and windows.